Hurricane People

Giggling, weeping, chatting, fighting, daring, swearing, but most of all, caring. Hurricane People, alive and vivacious, shouldering responsibilities, shirking duties, pitching in, and copping out. Mixed -n-matched. Mutt and Jeff, Jack and Jill. Climbing, but more than a hill. Scaling the mountain of success. Maybe slipping occasionally, but never turning back, for quitting was not an ingredient of a Hurricane. Though we had our faults, we were so thoroughly stirred, kneaded, and baked at just the right temperature, that we separated from the sides and rose victoriously as individuals ... Hurricane People!

HURRICANE HIGHLIGHTS

5 Cups Friendliness

Rufus, the Snowman, with arms outstretched, welcomes one and all.

The smoking pit serves as a center of intellectual conversation in which war and peace are of major interest.

Senior study halls provide a vent for secret confidences and a stage for the current dramas of daily life.

The directors of the Junior play take a break from rehearsal to Singing the Alma Mater at the Variety show, somehow brings the Seniors closer to each other.

chat about the progress of the play.

A smile, a pat on the back, and a cheery greeting supplied a portion of the ingredients for friendliness. For many, a mere "Hi! What's happening?" rescued us from the depths of gloom and lifted us to the heights of glee. It would have been so easy for one to think only of himself and forget that other people do exist, but as a MSHS student, it was impossible to do. We were continually entangling all into our web of sunshine and amity.

Mr. Wingfield still counts the candles openly.

Rallying behind the team cements old friendship and serves as the foundation for new acquaintances.

I T. Devilment and Rowdiness

Wait! Let's talk it over.

Heads, I win. Tails, you lose.

That's another foul on you, you, you...

No one, but no one, beats me!

Give 'em - WHAT, - Red??

Hurricanes ARE number one!

The Bleacher Bums express their true feelings

Ready.... Aim...

Yes, there was more to good ole MSHS than just work, work, work. These "Hurricane People" seemed to pop out of nowhere and added hilarity which lifted the strain of the daily routine. No matter if these students were inside the halls, outside in the snow, participating in sports, or showing school spirit, they somehow managed, in their own special way, to make someone laugh and to bring joy to the world of Marion Senior High School.

I Cup Co-operation

Fingerpainting art students revert to their childhood.

...And then came Rufus, created with tender loving care.

Judy Hoover and Sue Keyes collaborate on salad construction.

Kenny Edwards: chief overseer of Dicky Millard's progress.

Rising to the occasion, Industrial Arts Club hammers away.

"Teamwork, teamwork, that's what counts!" This was the belief expressed by the students at MSHS. There was also the belief that we could work things out - together; so through collaboration and mutual helpfulness, our school year was marked a success. Granted, there were flaws in the plan but they were quickly smoothed over (even the ruffled feathers of the underclassmen). Thus, like the Pushmy-Pullyu in the Doctor Doolittle stories, we had to work together in order to accomplish our purpose.

"A stitch in time saves...how many?"

"Well, you see, I need ten sources...by this afternoon."

Now.....One more time.

Roger Pennington, official mailman for MSHS.

4 T. Apathy and Vandalism

The Annual Staff has been aware of a deadly virus spreading throughout the halls of MSHS causing destruction and vandalism along its path. Our Hodge-Flash caught these actual scenes where the bug has attacked our students and caused this wreckage. Thanks to some concerned students who have taken action to annihilate this germ, vandalism has become less around our halls. During "I Care" week students drew posters, wrote poems, and performed skits trying to make others aware of this deadly virus.

"We're just trying to get our money's worth!"

"Tommy Toilet" alias Sydma Hatzopolous, demonstrates her extra talents in the "I Care Assembly."

If you don't need it, throw it in our lavatories.

Just one piece of paper won't hurt, will it?

Need we say more???

But the sign says "No Smoking", Jeannie!

A typical bulletin board.

Lately, this is even a more typical bulletin board.

Rodney Redneck said "Whoo-Pee" that was fun!

I C. Innocence and I Cup Wisdom

Not many people believe Ole Rick's yarns.

Mr. Williams, you don't really think that I'd do that!

Alan Brown wonders, "What's it all about?"

Who is the wise guy that left this mess?

From the innocence of the Freshmen to the wisdom of the Seniors, --- there were varying degrees of activity. Freshmen came to the school excited and unaware of the dangers lurking in the halls. The wise Seniors knew and planned to let the naivetes in on the secret to success. Graduation displayed the erudition and sagacity obtained through four years of hard work. At least the Freshmen now have a goal in sight.

Ain't no way - just ain't no way!

"And after you have finished...bring me another..."

Kim Coe lights his fire...of knowledge.

No, you may not be excused!

Kwiz team goes to Roanoke---and comes right back.

So this is how you become top in the Senior Class.

"Coach, that big bully hit me-right in the mouth!"

I C. Thoughtfulness and Sincerity

Ball's Bouncing Babes butter Ball with a better batter baked cake.

This makes my 64th ankle today.

The Hurricane people laughed, cried, studied, and played together in sincere friendship and love. Together, they sought and found the deep meanings of life as kindness and friendship penetrated the halls of Marion Senior High School. The students, teachers, and the principal worked in consideration of each other.

If you hadn't knocked them down in the first place, you wouldn't have to help now.

Standing as we sing, Hymn no. 71.

"Well, I used a mouthwash..."

Another dull day of school.

All through the year MSHS students enjoyed attaining goals as well as suffering mounting disappointments. Our teams had many victories yet encountered losses, but it was rewarding through the good sportsmanship portrayed throughout. Some failed as others passed, and some cried while others laughed.

I Cup Disappointment

"But I watered it ... maybe my green thumb turned orange."

"Aw, come on everybody!!"

3 Cups Victory

Happiness is ... Winning!

The Dancing Bear did it again!

Accomplishing the impossible is completing your science project the night before the Fair.

"...So I tried it. Thought I'd die!"

Victory - outsmarting Seniors and getting away with it ... or from it.

Receiving top awards for F.H.A. and Marionette surely gives one something to smile about.

"But I'm scared to talk in front of big crowds," says Sherree Rogers, Speaker of the House for MGA.

Do you mean that we are leaving the school to these S.C.A. officers for 1972-73?

"A" is for accomplishment!!

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y!! For the students at MSHS, this word was very well-known. In sports, our "Hurricane People" rallied victory after victory. From football to basketball, wrestling, track, golf and baseball, our people had pride and the everlasting strength and courage to win. Even when the going got tough, our teams never gave up.

In scholastic achievement, victory was well known to the people who worked and strived for their goal. Victory for Marion Senior High School was overpowering defeat by a mile.

4 Cups Enthusiasm and Vigor

There isn't much to be said about our enthusiasm and vigor because the pictures tell it like it is. Every student has participated in some type of enthusiasm this year, whether it be in a pep rally or a ballgame. The cheerleaders, the Bleacher Bums, the student body, the fans, and even the players were major factors in producing vigor and pep that carried us to victories and rescued us from defeats.

Connie Snavelly kicks the habit.

Follow the Yellow Brick Road to Success.

Sam and Ella Turtle perform their side-show routine.

Eat Who up?

Clap your hands and move your feet!

UFO - Unidentified Floating Object.

Thank goodness for my Secret!

Marion supporters come in all shapes and sizes.

Hurricane Happy House!

2 Cups Versatility

Inside and out, we find that MSHS is covered with the unique talents of individuals. As you see, we aren't lacking in versatility. On stage, in class, and at the "alley", we have discovered that our students have a wide variety of talents which are usually hidden behind stacks of books and homework papers.

"Now I told you sweetie, don't call me at school!"

Youth Government Day - mass confusion!

"And now, for my next number..."

"Howdy, son! You here to pick up Lilybelle?"

This party is going to be murder.

"Strike one!" Whoops! Wrong game!

Mad-Dog Schwartz, "guilty or not guilty"?

Gertrude, I thought you'd never ask.

Believe me, this is the way to Carnegie Hall.

"Easy Lovin'".

2 Cups Talent

"One, two, three, four ... one, two, three - "

Are you sure the Jolly Green Giant started out this way?

"Everybody count to ten and say limburger cheese!"

The butler didn't do it this time!

King Arthearp gives Sir Scarlet instructions on defeating the Blue Knight.

The Scarlettes' floor show isn't exactly what we were expecting.

Rhonda Lovelace hopes for that strike.

"All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players...". To this famous quote from As You Like It by William Shakespeare, the students of Marion Senior High School added a new dimension. No longer did we feel that we must exhibit our abilities on a conventional stage, for daily life was the stage on which we presented perpetual performances.

The Pep Band: a bunch of desirable blow-hards.

I Cup Originality

The drama class in serious rehearsal.

Hippie Dave, where are your contacts?

Women's Lib in reverse.

When are the auditions for the part of Rudolph the Red-nosed Reindeer?

Which twin has the Toni?

"And I thought I got enough of this at home!"

The long and the short of it.

His barber went out of business.

Yes, drama does have devastating effects on people.

From the Mardi Gras to the fashion scene, from hair styles to drama — these were only a few of the many ways that Hurricane people were expressing themselves. The personality of each and every student was reflected and revealed in a multitude of interesting ways. Each unique person illustrated his individuality in some distinct manner which added a new dimension to the life at Marion Senior High School.

I Cup Privileges

Mr. Moody measures Aleta Catron for her status symbol, a 1973 Senior ring.

Ahhh, the liberties of senior study (??) halls.

Football players are entitled to front row seats during fall pep rallies, and their size prevents arguments.

"Oh beautiful, for spacious skies..."

Hard at work in the SCA room.

Seniors first, a concert by Black Oak Arkansas, unsupervised senior study halls, and the privilege of living in a democratic society made us realize that freedom must be earned. Hard work, countless tears, and painstaking toil were necessary to sow the seeds of liberty, but co-operation, alliance, and trust were even more important to the continuation of these freedoms. Though we complained of the restrictions imposed upon us, deep inside we knew that we were truly lucky.

As the first Senior class to receive their rings during the Junior year, Barbara Parks purchases her "beauty" with immense pride.

In the Sophomore assembly, Judge Hoge presents Mike Phares with a license to operate his "wheels."

At a table of their own, teachers discuss the trials and tribulations of their profession.

"Assembly is dismissed. Seniors first!"

3 T. Discipline

How much have YOU had, Mr. Henry?

Girls, are you gonna sit there or play ball?

"Happiness is...having Mrs. Werth catch you when you lay out of class."

Patty Bear and Bill Rector probe into 17th century literature with all the gusto they can muster.

Senior boys harass a naughty freshman.

Mrs. Bishop finds a place to dust her eraser.

"Hello ... Mr. Veselik?"

I said I'd do anything for track ... but not my hair!

Through strong efforts and discipline, students learned and gave to their highest capacity. Order was maintained by teachers, coaches, and other staff members.

Freshmen received the unfortunate end of the bargain with the disciplinary actions handed out by upperclassmen. Everyone knew who was boss and few crossed the line.

Raw hard work proved to be the principle on which the Seniors based their success and the underclassmen hoped to learn from the "elders".

"Ah, you did it, now you're gonna get it!"

3 Cups Hilarity

"But this is the latest style..."

Mrs. Pugh is allergic to butter, but only on her birthday.

Juniors jivin' to the beat!

"Ahhh ... my little chickadee..."

Is this our faculty? It couldn't be ... could it?

Students take revenge on captured Mr. DeBord.

"The Bulldogs came over the mountain--yuk."

"All for Marion, stand up and holler!"

While proceeding diligently through what could have been another hum-drum year at M.S.H.S., the Hurricane people took time out from their study to chase away the blues. They made fun out of the dull workdays by obeying the upperclassmen and by joining one of the many clubs. From dressing like women to representing the barnyard, the students enjoyed priceless moments of hilarity.

"Ho! Ho! Ho!" Very funny, VERY embarrassing.

3 Cups Festivity

Gaiety was foremost in many of the 1971-72 school activities. From the sock hops to the Prom, MSHS students enjoyed the various entertainments amid an atmosphere of fellowship. "The Spirit of 71" was an ideal theme for the Homecoming activities. Whether it was the Variety show, the parade, the football game, or the dances, our Hurricane people pulled through with all-out support.

An air of elegance combined with nervous stomachs provided an appropriate scene for our MSHS Beauty Pageant. Each girl, armed with the security of an Alka-Seltzer waiting behind stage, sailed across the floor to the music "I Feel Pretty." Tensions were calmed and hands clapped as Debbie Medley was crowned "Miss MSHS".

From graceful silhouettes we moved right along to exciting frenzy of the Christmas Dance. Feet shuffled and bodies swayed as couples glided down "Mistletoe Lane." As the spirit of Christmas permeated throughout the cafeteria and couples were seen whispering sweet nothings under the mistletoe, we knew the dance had been successful.

Homecoming Court: Debbie Romans, Nancy Parsons, Debbie Colley, Jill Hinton, Vicki Paddock.

These thorns are killing me.

Jive on!

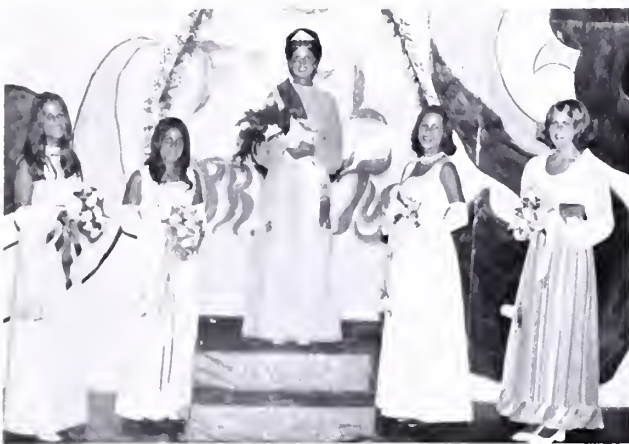

DEBBIE
ROMANS

Homecoming Activities.

Queen and Court: Cheryl Sale, Rosemary Bass, Debbie Medley, Katherine Greer, Lynn Thompson.

Christmas Dance couples glide down "Mistletoe Lane".

John Bauman and Betty Hunter reign as King and Queen.

Behind the scene activities.

Valentines Dance Court: Alan Widner, Teresa Blevins, Lynn Cornett, Gary Romans, Gayle Ross, Becky Wyatt, Melinda Irving, Jesse Choate, Anita Ross, Butch Glass.

Debbie Snider blushes as Alan Linkous "feeds her a line."

And the beat goes on.

Black Oak Arkansas

In concert.

"Welcome aboard, honored Seniors!!"

"Be young ..."

"...be foolish ..."

"Queen of Hearts" provided the setting for the Valentine's Dance, as Cupid's darts were aimed at all the couples. Intermission was highlighted with the crowning of the queen, Becky Wyatt.

Black Oak Arkansas presented MSHS with the first rock concert in our school's history. The wild frenzy of the performers brought forth from the audience screams of enjoyment. Once again the Hurricane People towered in their efforts of making the concert a complete success.

Topping off a year of festivity was the annual Jr.-Sr. Prom. "Be Young, Be Foolish, but Be Happy" rang in the hearts of all present. The Juniors had successfully created the best prom ever. This was made evident by the tears of happiness which streamed down the joyful faces of those dancing to the theme song.

" ... but be Happy!"

4 Cups Pride

National Black Week is observed by Jane Russell, Deborah Hayes, Karen Yette, and Debbie Lee.

"We're behind you, we're backing you up!"

Success Story No. 21!

"I pledge allegiance..."

"But Dad, I'm doing my best!"

"You can do it, you can do it, you can!"

Roundballers display solemnity as the team continues winning.

Pride was Coach Ball's favorite speech topic to encourage our football team. The Bleacher Bums organized school spirit and brought it to a high peak for our basketball team and for pep rallies. The black students emphasized National Black Week with a bulletin board - for heritage. Coach Ball, the Bleacher Bums, black students, music and other activities - that was for pride in our school.

Blow on, Gordon Bass ... Toot, toot, toot!

Freshmen finally win a pep rally ... the judges sold out!!

I Qt. Reality

After twelve years as a unit, the Seniors became acutely aware of their need for individuality outside the walls of M.S.H.S.

The Rotary Guidance Program awakened many to the world of business careers.

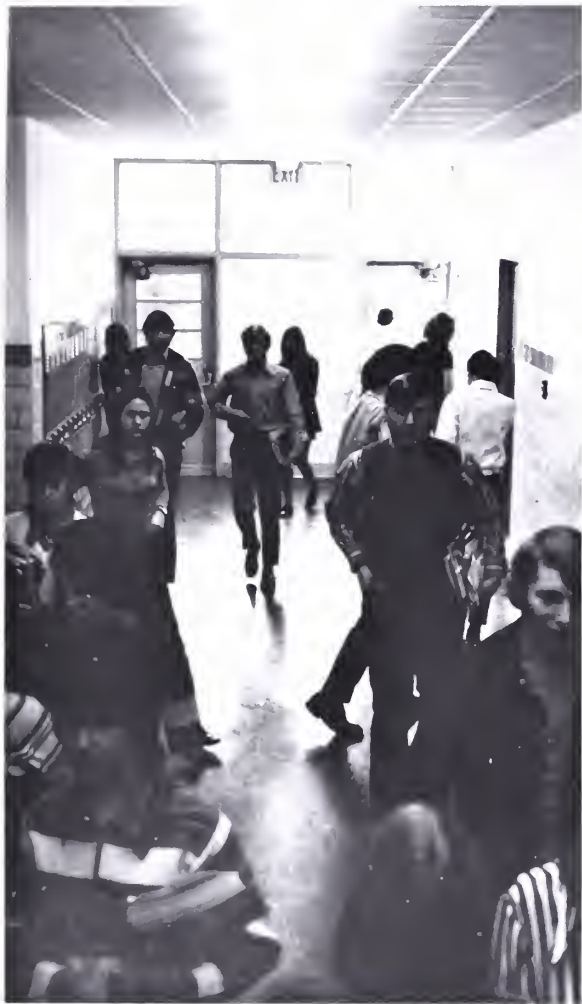

College Career Night offered answers to Juniors and Seniors as they made plans for furthering their education.

The arrival of these status symbols and the superiority of the Seniors was impounded upon the underclassmen's minds.

Once students realize that school is not all play, the power of the library is at the constant service of anyone who knows how to use it.

The daily hassle of going to and from classes bring us a notch closer to summer vacation.

Phil Davis and Rodney Jones faithfully go to the draft board office as they are forced to think of the future as the "not so far away."

A generation of ecology minded people, we know one small piece of trash can mar the beauty of nature.

Mr. Williams, Robert Parsons and Gary Fuller endeavor to make M.S.H.S. students proud of our flag and our heritage.

Realizing 1971-1972 would be a special year, the students threw themselves into various activities. The Bleacher Bums yelled vigorously and they soon became a star attraction at basketball games. Closeted in deep sessions, the SCA accomplished some astounding feats, much to the amazement of the student body. Whether meeting with the students or the faculty, Mr. Williams reiterated his philosophy that students come first. Genuine concern echoed the problems that cursed some areas at MSHS and together, the students labored to ward off any such future enigmas. Profiting from these experiences, students and faculty alike accomplished the products for a successful year.

Industry visitation for the Seniors provided valuable insight to the world of wage earners.

Measuring for his gown, Cecil Johnson wonders if he is going to be able to last out those few endless months before graduation.

Our new S.C.A. officers for the '71-'72 school year don't seem to happy at the thought of first day in school and first day out of the pool.

The Senior girls question whether they can keep the tassel on their cap from flopping in their face.

HURRICANE FACES

Youth Government Day

Adults remained on the sidelines as the Senior government students took over the reins of the town for a day with an air of efficiency and progress. To achieve their common goal, the youth worked together and realized that government is not all books -- it is an actuality. Instead of merely reading about town management, they involved themselves readily in their important jobs. Adding this experience to their four years of high school, the Seniors became perspective town and national citizens.

FACES OF '72

When August 26 finally dawned and we listened to opening day speeches for the last time, the class of '72 felt a sense of togetherness that grew and was strengthened throughout the year. This sense of our being a unit, of each of us being part of a larger whole, carried us through many escapades and projects.

We campaigned to get an astounding 85% to go on our Senior trip, and then worked feverishly on projects and sales. When the appointed days finally came and we toured the nation's capitol, our minds and hearts were flooded with memories that will last for many years. After weeks of grueling practice A Family Portrait, the class play, was presented successfully. Each of us has special memories of successful sports seasons and our final Homecoming at MSHS. This year was our time to be honored with a prom, and we spent a lovely night dancing.

Together we have arrived at a new beginning and as we look forward into all the tomorrows of our lives, it will be with hearts full of friends and friendships that were begun at MSHS and that will last forever.

Do you mean to say that this is the Steering Committee?

Senior Play

Five weeks of rehearsals produced the serious drama of Family Portrait. A play of religious and Biblical heritage, it displayed realism with the more updated contemporary language used. Under the direction of Mrs. Werth and Mrs. Pugh, the cast presented the troubled days before Jesus' crucifixion and the Passover season. It also gave meaning to our lives with the presentation of the idea that "it takes a lot of understanding."

Hurricane Honors

National Merit Test Semifinalists - Robert Huntley, Debby Tilson, and Don Francis.

I Dare You Award - Patty Bear and John Bauman.

Top Twelve Seniors - Don Francis, Cindy Fenyk, Jack McCarty, Susan Horne, Bobby Combs, Sarah Sparger, Audrey Sturgill, Kay Robinson, Shelia Murray, Patty Bear, Margie Cline, Linda Aker.

Have you ever heard remarks such as "I failed that test (weep...!)" or "No one likes me (sob...!)" or "I'll never succeed in life (sniff...!)"? If so, the people using those lines were probably the most outstanding members of the Class of '72. For some unknown reason, the top-notch students were always feeling as if they were under-achieving, disliked, and doomed to failure. Yet they were actually molding their "poor, useless lives" into being "the observed of all observers".

Outstanding American High School Students - Patty Bear, Debbie Romans, Cindy Fenyk, Dicky Millard, John Bauman, Lloyd Anderson, Betty Hunter, Don Francis, Sheila Murray, Joyce Shields.

Outstanding FFA and Lions' Club Award Lloyd Anderson; Betty Crocker Award Charlotte Robertson.

Outstanding Teen-agers of America Patty Bear, Debbie Romans, Betty Hunter, John Bauman.

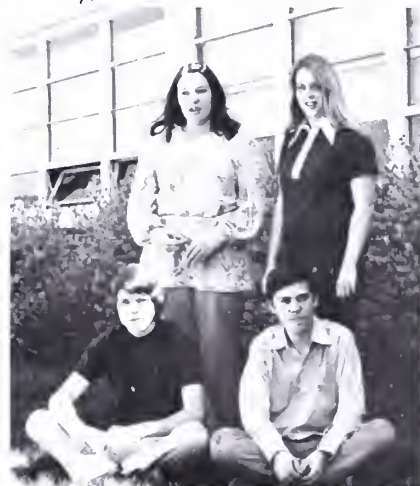

Coveted awards: Ilsa Schiff Memorial Nursing Scholarship - Teresa Counts; Kiwanis - Carolyn Taylor; Pilot - Debby Tilson; Brunswick - Jack McCarty.

Outstanding Art Students - Pat Cline and Gary Slomp; Outstanding Chorus Students - Judy Hoover and Harold Beverly.

DAR Good Citizen - Betty Hunter.

Junior Play

"One went and hanged himself and then there were none ..." In order to support the Prom activities the Juniors, on January 6, 1972 presented Ten Little Indians by Agatha Christie. The audience was held in suspense as the characters disappeared from stage, as regularly as the rhythmic flow of the nursery rhyme on the wall.

FACES OF '73

During the 1971-1972 school year we Juniors threw ourselves enthusiastically into numerous activities and projects. Selling candy, readying the class play for its one-night stand, ordering rings, and preparing for the Junior-Senior Prom were undertaken by our spirited class. We also participated in every phase of school life from forensic meets and athletic teams to SCA meetings and Bleacher Bums. The experience and maturity gained through our activities this year will aid us as we enter our final year at MSHS and become the true leaders of the school.

FACES OF '74

On August 26, 1971, the class of '74 found a year of new experiences and ideas awaiting us. We felt the urge to distinguish ourselves as being more mature than we were as Freshmen. Through our active roles in school government and extra-curricular activities, we have added our portion to the enthusiasm of MSHS. We helped raise the school spirit by winning numerous pep rallies which, before the class of '74, was taboo for Sophomores. Participation in Sophomore class assemblies, the Rotary Guidance Program, and an assembly for the entire student body rounded out our active year.

FACES OF '75

Last September 330 active, bright-eyed Freshmen descended upon MSHS with great enthusiasm. The mighty Seniors showed their hospitality by a pat on the heads with their rings, and the echoes resounding through the halls sounded like Bongo drums. We Freshmen were somewhat resentful at having to take the back seats in assembly, allowing seniors to cut in ahead of us in the lunch line, and to be the last to leave assembly. We are now feeling much better since we will soon enter the Sophomore rank.

The girls have served as guides for special occasions - College Career night, Parent Visitation, and the Rotary Guidance program. The boys are active in sports.

Our loyal support of all school activities demonstrates that the Freshmen are a strong spoke in the mighty wheel that keeps MSHS moving.

Administration

Caught in the act!

Cotton---a pain in the...neck?

"I can't believe I ate the whole thing."

Try it, you'll like it.

Without the valuable help and concern of the school administration, the smoothness of our school year could never have been accomplished. To Mr. Williams, the students always came first when confronted with a typical problem. What the students would think and how they would react, became his primary concern.

Disciplinary riddles were easily solved by Mr. Henry as he contemplated the future of some students. "Busy, busy, busy!" were the main words of the secretaries, Mrs. Byrd and Mrs. Britton. Scurrying around, they succeeded in doing the "impossible" --- satisfying everyone at the same time.

Without the help of our office staff, our school couldn't go on.

They did what?!

Guidance

"Well, you see, I have this problem, Mr. Goodman," prefaced many remarks given to our laden guidance staff. Many wrinkles were smoothed over by the helping hands of Mr. Goodman and Mrs. Winters. With the valuable qualities of the secretary, Mrs. Crewey, the counselors and their business were kept in order.

Even teachers have problems.

Vocational School

Every day a number of students from our school depart to the Smyth County Vocational School. Vocational Education prepares many students for entry jobs and also helps to lead some students into post-secondary programs of advanced vocational and technical education.

Special Staff

Louise Martin, Pearl Fouse, Marjorie Barton, Ruth Osborne, Shirley Blevins, and Lucille Powell prepare our delicious meals.

Few students realize the importance of the cafeteria staff. On Mrs. Clawson rests the responsibility of being dietician for about 1,100 students. She had the priceless assistance of the cooks and the custodians who seemed to be everywhere at the same time, helping someone in need. We also couldn't get along without our NYC workers to help our custodians and office staff.

Mrs. Clawson master minding another menu plot.

NYC workers are a big help to our office staff and custodians.

I just can't find Joe Tutch's name in this file.

Charlie Eller, Bob Wymer, and Claude Thomas make up our custodian staff.

Early in the summer, the handbook committee compiled (slaved over) the Swamp Fox for presentation at the onset of the school year. The handbook was designed to give the Freshmen and other new students a deeper understanding of our school and its regulations. Constituents of this committee were Anne Lambert, Jo Burkett, and Mimi Graham.

Through long meetings with much discussion the S.C.A. served as a medium between students and faculty. The students were able to relate problems within the school, many of which were solved. All members of the S.C.A. strived to make MSHS an outstanding school, pointing with pride to the accomplishments of the various committees.

Debbie Romans put out an assiduous effort in making the public aware of the events occurring at MSHS. During homecoming activities she was assisted in making posters by Johnny Rector, Fielder Sanders, Jackie White, Mike Romans, Sarah Sparger, Jan Wagoner, Dave Paddock, and Rosemary Bass.

The movie Sweet November was presented to the student body on March 9, 1972, by the Charity Drive which was headed by Betty Hunter. The purpose of this project was to raise money to be donated to charitable organizations in Smyth County as determined by the SCA Council.

Once each month, homeroom teachers and SCA representatives nominated one boy and one girl to compete for Citizens of the Month for that month. Chairman Sandra Trail compiled the nominations into one list and from this list the members of the SCA council voted, with the award going to the top boy and girl.

The year 1971-72 was a year of many changes and with these changes the constitution was up-dated by Gary Slomp, Sue Matthews, Davey Smith, Sherree Rogers, and Charlie Gill to meet the needs of today's student.

The students at MSHS were entertained at sock hops by a variety of bands ranging from soul to hard rock. The arrangements for obtaining these distant bands were made by Dicky Millard and Bobby Tate.

The rooms of the new wing were given pride this year when the Patriotism Committee placed U.S. flags in them. On behalf of the school Robert Parsons and Gary Fuller, co-chairmen of the Patriotism Committee, proudly accepted from the V.F.W. Post in Marion a U.S. flag and a state flag which had flown over the U.S. capitol and state capitol. The flags were raised daily in front of our school to reflect MSHS's pride in her country.

As a result of the Charity Drive, Betty Hunter donates checks to Marion Jaycees Retardation Center and the American Cancer Society.

The halls of MSHS took on new color as the Bulletin Board Committee, made up of Becky Brown and Teresa Hudson, showed different phases of student life with creative board displays.

The memories of our school year were compiled into a scrapbook by Ginny Cornick and Katherine Foreman so that in years to come anyone can look back and see that 1971-72 was truly a great year.

The SCA and the Beta Club joined in honoring top students in each subject by presenting them with awards in the Scholastic Awards Assembly. Chairman Jackie White was assisted in giving the competitive tests by Pam Pennington.

Although unable to have a foreign exchange student for the year 1971-72, Patty Bear waged a campaign to arouse community interest in sponsoring a student for the oncoming school years.

The Marionette award for the most MSHS recognition, is given to Mr. Winters, SCA sponsor and VEA President.

Hurricane Citizens

Each month one boy and one girl were voted by the SCA Council to be Citizens of the Month for that month. Nominations for these awards, which were submitted by homeroom teachers and their SCA representatives, were based on honesty, respect for teachers and fellow students, and participation in school activities. At the end of the school year, the names of the citizens from each month were compiled into one list. From the list the SCA council selected the one boy and girl to receive the honor of being chosen the Citizens of the Year.

With the opening of football season, Sheila Murray and Lloyd Anderson were intercepted for the Citizens of the Month for September.

The Citizens of the Month for October, Vicky Paddock and Charlie Gill, played their parts for Halloween.

With this much Christmas spirit, it's no wonder Jack McCarty and Debbie Romans were Citizens of the Month for December.

Surely Betty Hunter and John Bauman didn't get selected Citizens of the Month for November by chasing a poor little ole turkey.

Even the good citizens of January, Gwyn Thompson and Sandy Trail, can join in on the fun of a New Year's Eve party.

With hearts as big as theirs, how could Teri Harvey and Johnny Linkous help but be selected Citizens of the Month for February.

Wonder if Benjamin Franklin was ever chosen to be a Citizen of the Month for March? Joey Murphy and Anita Blevins were at MSHS.

Rain sure doesn't dampen the spirits of Katherine Foreman and Kim Harvey who were chosen Citizens of the Month for April.

Like they say "April showers bring May flowers." Cindy Fenyk and Dicky Millard were Citizens of the Month for May.

Because they cared and were involved throughout the school year, John Bauman and Betty Hunter were selected Citizens of the Year for 1971-72.

Boy's Senior Hi - Y

Members of the Boy's Senior Hi - Y exercised the club's goal, to serve the people of our community, by parking cars at various school events. A Christmas party given at the Southwestern State Hospital and the provision of Thanksgiving baskets for the needy were among the club's projects. Also, the annual Christmas dance was co-sponsored by the club.

Junior Hi-Y

Boys developed Christian and leadership qualities as members of the Junior Hi-Y. They co-sponsored the Thanksgiving assembly in co-operation with the Junior Tri-Hi-Y. Hardworking individuals, these young men also carried part of the burden for the Christmas dance.

Athletes Are Honored

Varsity

Lettermen in varsity sports became Varsity Club members. Without the devoted assistance of these boys, the concession stand would not have been such a great success. Members of this club became beauty queens in the "Womanless Beauty Pageant."

Future teacher ... teaches?

"Don't know if I'll be back again."

Future Teachers of America

Lured by the possibilities of future teaching, the FTA planned a visit to East Tennessee State University, located nearby. Through practice teaching for teachers at MSHS, members hoped to become part of a future respected faculty, and perhaps, in a roundabout way, to get even for all their abuses as a student.

Dramatic Ability Is Exercised

Front Row: Debby Tilson, Reporter; Jill Hinton, Treasurer; Alan Dean, Vice-President; Jackie White, Secretary; Mrs. Weems, Sponsor. What's going on??

Distributive Education

The purpose of the D.E. Club was to gain valuable experience through on-the-job training. Each day, these working people left for their jobs as part of their education.

Helping Others And Themselves

You'd better sand that off before Mr. Vicars comes back.

Now, if I were doing it -- I'd do it this way.

Industrial Arts

Acoustical equipment is provided by the hardworking members of the Industrial Arts Club. They informed the public of school events on our school marquee and built flats for the plays presented at MSHS.

Front Row: Carol Russell, Reporter; Rhonda Gates, Treasurer; Evon Yette, President; June Stillwell, Secretary; Wayne Hodges, Vice-President; Mr. Goodman, Sponsor. We've just gotta keep that one point lead!

Berea or Bust!!

Upward Bound

V.P.I. tutors traveled to help members of the Upward Bound Club. At their meetings, a special speaker talked of their educational opportunities. They planned a trip to V.P.I. and one member, Evon Yette, attended Berea College at Berea, Kentucky. In support of their activities the club sponsored a dance.

New Interests And Accomplishments

Hey, Rusty, this is poison oak!!

I know my contact is in there somewhere!

Are you sure flower children started this way??

Horticulture

The Horticulture Club though newly founded was one of the busiest groups at MSHS. They faithfully grew attractive flowers for the banquet tables on Youth Government Day. Open House was held in the greenhouse to "show-off" their green thumbs.

The guy said they were magical beans.

Bear's snowball makes contact as she hits the ground.

Ski Club

Trips to Beach Mountain, North Carolina were included in the plans of the Ski Club. Some were just learning the techniques of skiing and were helped by fellow skiers.

David Kendle off to a beautiful start.

Oops!! The "tragedy" of skiing will be apparent to Dave tomorrow.

We're glad you made it to the bottom, Dave.

Various Fields Are Explored

Library Club

Who were those people scurrying around like quiet mice? The members of the Library Club, of course. They offered assistance to any wandering waif who became lost amid the pages of knowledge. For their own financial support, the club sold pens to fellow classmates.

Kathy Harris, Reporter; Debbie Slagle, Secretary; Ginger Rowland, Treasurer; Carla Freeman, President; Linda Wymer, Vice-President; Miss Fleenor, Sponsor; Sheila Surber, Chaplain. ### Ecology

Due to the timely emphasis on the ecological and conservational structure of our society, the Ecology Club was formed. Clean-ups were organized and set in motion to show how intensely the members believed in their cause.

Ecology minded members seek out pollution in the community.

Knowledge Is Gained

Science

All aspects of science were examined microscopically by future scientists. Science Club members were urged to enter a project in the Science Fair.

Model Rocketry

5 - 4 - 3 - 2 - 1
...ignition... blast-off! These were familiar sounds to any Model Rocketry Club enthusiast. Astronauts and astronomy rocketeers of the future held launches to which students and adults were invited.

Harold Beverly, Carol J. Russell, Rose Marie Kell, and Karen Yette represented MSBS in the All Regional Chorus.

Chorus

To lend lyrical and vocal variety to the students, Mrs. Jane Call presented the Chorus in Easter and Christmas assemblies, and the Spring Concert. MSBS played host to the All Regional Chorus held in February. Their new innovation, the Chorale, gave special programs at school and the Kiwanis Club. The highlight of the year came when the Chorus received a superior rating in the Regional Chorus Festival. So that they could order new music, faithful members sold candy and football programs.

Head Coach "Wild Bill" Earp

Harrison Gains Yardage against Bristol.

"Get off of my Back!" commands R.V. Olinger.

Hurricanes of the Future

Hang the Warrior.

Murphy Gets a well-deserved Rest.

"Breakdown!!"

FRONT ROW: Ulysses Cox, Ben Jackson, Steve Belton, Greg Ferrell, Alan Blevins, Randy Tiller, Gary Hart, Terry Pennington, Mike Phares. SECOND ROW: Eddie Hash, Joe Ellis, Joe Ferraro, Jerry Thompson, Willy Greer, Steve Osborne, James Boehm, Mike Poe. THIRD ROW: Mike Romans, Mike Wagoner, Frank Britton, Mike Roberts, Steve Boehm, Charles Thompson, Gary Hester. FOURTH ROW: Coach Larry Sayers, Delter Cullop, Roger Thompson, Mike Jackson, Charlie Gill, Jeff Parker, J. Arthur Guy, Joe Thompson, Steve McDonald, Randy Daughtery, Coach Alvin Crowder.

The J.V. football squad put up a good fight this year over their opponents with a 3-2-3 record. Marion J.V. football team maintained a decent record for the entire season. Their great desire to win, and toughness against good competition remained in the minds of our respected coaches and student body.

Hurricanes Line Up for Action

Harkins' Spartans Capture District

Front Row: Bradley Moore, Coach Smith, Chuck Richardson, Jack Murphy, Joe Thompson, Danny Tilson, Coach Harkins, Alan Linkous. Second Row: Johnny Linkous, Scott Rousseau, Kenny Parks, Jonithan Blevins, Scott Smith, Gwyn Thompson, Kim Harvey, Steve Schwartz, Jimmy Buchanan, James Taylor, Jackie Bivens, David Smith.

Harvey gets clobbered from the back.

Steve Schwartz claims a free ball.

The Big Red Roundballers finished one of the best seasons in the school history, as they captured the Southwest District with a 17-1 record. Although they succumbed to Radford in the finals of the Regional tournaments, they proved to all that Marion teams are always of high caliber and uphold the winning tradition of Marion High. As coach of the Southwest District Champions, Coach Harkins was chosen "Coach of the Year" in Southwest Virginia.

Harkins tells it like it is.

Gwyn Thompson sinks a free throw.

Hurricane Superstars

Gwyn Thompson

Steve Schwartz

Alan Linkous

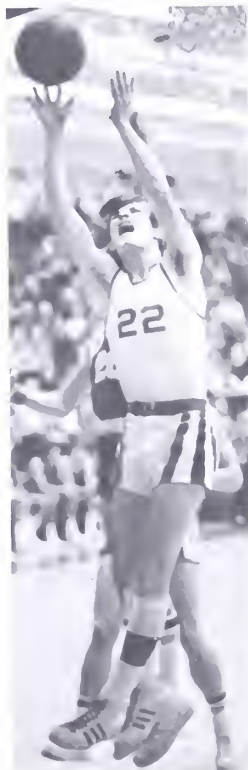

Bradley Moore

Kim Harvey

Jonithan Blevins

Jackie Bivens

Scott Smith, James Taylor, and Kenny Parks.

Future Roundballers

Front Row: Steve McDonald, Coach Sayers, J. Arthur Guy. Second Row: Duane Mazingo, Larry Able, Mike Livesay, Stewart Gill, Chuck Nelson, Dennis Farris, Mark McCloud, Steve Thompson, Jay McDonald, John D. Crewey, Gary Perdue, David Moore.

Our J. V. Basketball players, while not being the superstars Coach Harkins had, devoted their time and all the talent they possessed to make their season their best. Their scores didn't always make the grade, but they didn't allow anybody to run over them, either. With Coach Sayers to teach them the fundamentals of the game, our J. V.'s will soon be our superstars of years to come.

Jay McDonald gets two from the charity line.

The Freshmen basketball team, coached by Ron Ball, completed the season with a 4-7 record. They registered wins against Mt. Rogers, John Battle, Wytheville, and the Marion Eighth Grade team.

The captains of this year's team were Gregg Ferrell, Randy Daugherty, and Eddie Medley. After the final game of the year, the team elected Gregg Ferrell M.V.P. and presented him the team warm-up ball.

Wrestlers Go Undeclared & Win Regionals

Black Power takes over.

Dave Clark pins his toughest man.

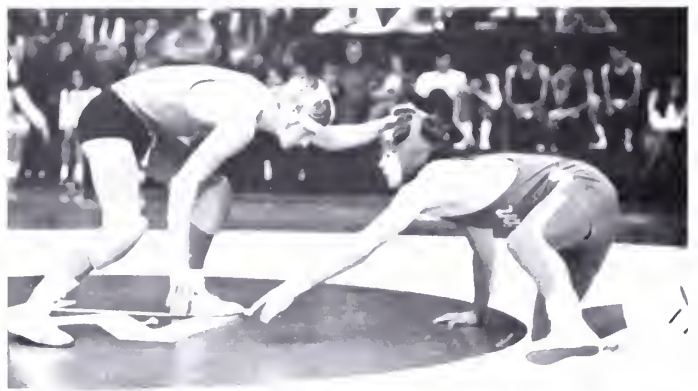

The 1971-72 season was another successful campaign for Marion's grapplers. They swept the district undefeated and went on to capture the regional crown for the sixth straight year. There is no doubt that Marion's wrestlers are of the highest caliber and a credit to our school.

Jackson Beagles wonders "What's happening?"

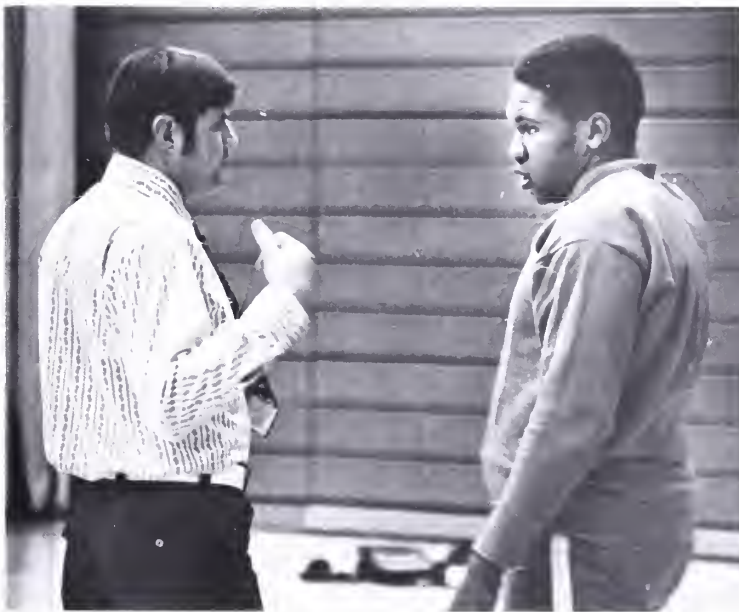

"Get out of my hair," orders Fausto.

Coach Weaver gives verbal support.

You have to show him who's boss.

"Coach, are you sure I can pin him from this end?"

Girls' Varsity Basketball

First Row Seniors: Sarah Scott, Betty Hunter. Kneeling: Jo Burkett, Nancy Parsons, Jill Hinton, April Harper, Linda Walker, Katherine Foreman. Standing: Pam Debord, Alisa Mercer, Teri Harvey, Susan Thompson, Debbie Snider, Brenda Russell, Coach Duncan.

The Varsity Girls were unbeaten in basketball with a 12-0 record. They not only had desire to win, but ability, height, speed, leadership, and strings they all wore around their wrists for good luck. Despite the butterflies they had in their stomachs before the tip off they always came out Number 1!

Susan Thompson hits cotton from the "Charity Strip."

Teri Harvey zeroes in for the basket.

Debbie Snider sinks it for two!

Girls' J.V. Basketball

The Girl's Junior Varsity team did it again this year with another undefeated record, 12-0. The freshmen and sophomore roundballers defeated Chilhowie, Rich Valley, Bland, Fort Chiswell, John Battle, and Saltville. These victories resulted from many hours of practice, team spirit, determination, and the backing of their coach, Miss Jeannie Duncan.

The J.V. bench looks on.

Hayes swishes one.

Ellen Farrington attempts a free throw.

Cross Country Track

Bobby Runyon, Jerry Patterson, Scott Wright, Coach Brockman, Buddy Farris, Ken Bauman, Mike Bauman, and Martin Stewart.

"Neither rain nor snow, not sleet or hail" could stop the runners of the Cross Country track team. Occasionally, the boys became part animal as they sprinted across fences and creeks, deep in back country. When the marathons had ended, their overall regular season record was 18-8, due mostly to the diligence of the captains, Ken Bauman and George Whitley.

Coach Brockman turns on high spirit in a pep rally.

Practice makes a good team.

Herbert Clay and Bobby Runyon assist exhausted Martin Stewart to the field house.

Indoor Track

First row: Billy Lefler, Ben Jackson, Martin Stewart, Dicky Millard, Emmitt Harrison, Gary Hart, Joe Ferraro, Letcher Wagner. Second row: Coach Brockman, Ulysses Cox, Lloyd Anderson, George Whitley, John Dehart, Ken Bauman, Herbert Clay, James Barker, Coach Earp.

Protected from the various weather hazards, the Indoor Track team jumped hurdles instead of country fences. Their life was not all a "bed of roses" for these boys kept in shape under the able direction of Coach Brockman and ran and ran and ran ...

John Bauman struggles for the lead in the mile relay.

Billy Lefler shows his skill at broad jumping.

The team loosens up before another meet.

Jeff Hart excels in the high jump.

Outdoor Track

Front row: Danny Tilson, Fausto Obregon, Frank Britton, Ben Jackson, David Boehm, Alan Linkous, Joey Murphy, Gary Hart, Emmitt Harrison, Dicky Millard, David Smith, Gary Pruitt, Joe Ferraro. Second row: Tommy Martin, Lynn Epperson, Mac Poe, Martin Stewart, Rick Edwards, Greg Lawrence, Mike Orr, George Whitley, John DeHart, Ken Bauman, John Bauman, Jack Murphy, Herbert Clay, Jerry Patterson. Third row: Billy Lefler, David Gillespie, Jimmy Buchanan, Ronnie Hess, Dennis Edmiston, Lloyd Anderson, Ulysses Cox, Mark McCloud, Bobby Hunter, John David Crewey, Kenny Parks, James Barker, Kim Harvey, Letcher Wagner. Fourth row: Coach Earp, Mike Roberts, William Farris, Jackie Bivens, Charlie Thompson, David Kendle, Eddie Keyes, Greg Stelle, Dwight Hester, Coach Brockman.

... Leap tall buildings with a single bound, outrun a bullet, and strong enough to hold up a freight train. This year's outdoor track team seems to fit the description of Superman, but rather than Superman, they are the Supermen of Marion Senior High School. Stamina, strength, and endurance proved to be the over-all record of the team, of which they put to good use during the meets. So Supermen, Keep the faith!!

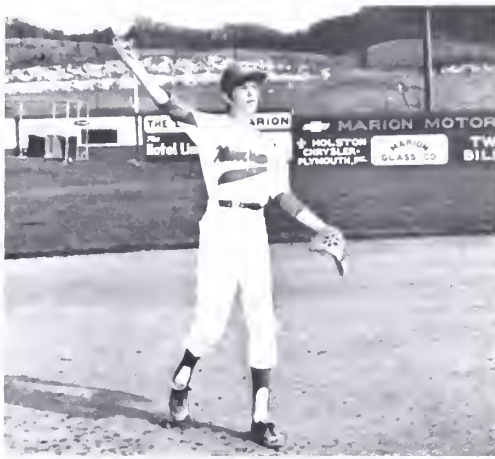

... And sometimes we help out at girls' track meets. Man, this is a breeze!!

Slow down, boys, where's the fire?

Baseball

Steve Schwartz limbering up the ole wing.

"You're out!"
"No! He's safe!!"

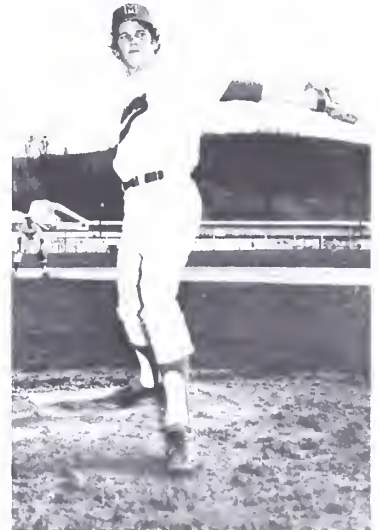

Conflicts between the umpires and coaches, hits, home-runs, strikes, and walks all were a part of the '72 baseball season at Marion Senior High School. Led by Alvin Crowder and assisted by Moe Weaver, the mighty swingers, crawled out of a rut at the beginning of the season, to achieve the high standards of MSHS ... win or lose!

Allen Tolbert hustling after a line drive.

Rick Richardson check that form.

Randy Pennington doesn't need greasy, kid-stuff on his fast ball.

Golf

"Fore!" and the match had begun. Everyone ducked to avoid the ball as it shot straight to its mark and the golf team teed off to another victory. As the golf team opened its season, it was defending regional champion. It is a strong possibility that the '72 team will obtain this title again, and also place very high in the State match.

Johnny lines up his putt.

Put it close, Scooter.

Rusty loses a quarter on that bet.

Sink it baby, sink it baby . . .

Varsity and J.V. Cheerleaders

Heading off to camp to learn new cheers, this year's Varsity squad brought enthusiasm to the student body. To finance that excursion, the cheerleaders accepted donations on a pool table. Between scurrying around from ballgames to practices the talented girls presented humorous original skits about upcoming contests.

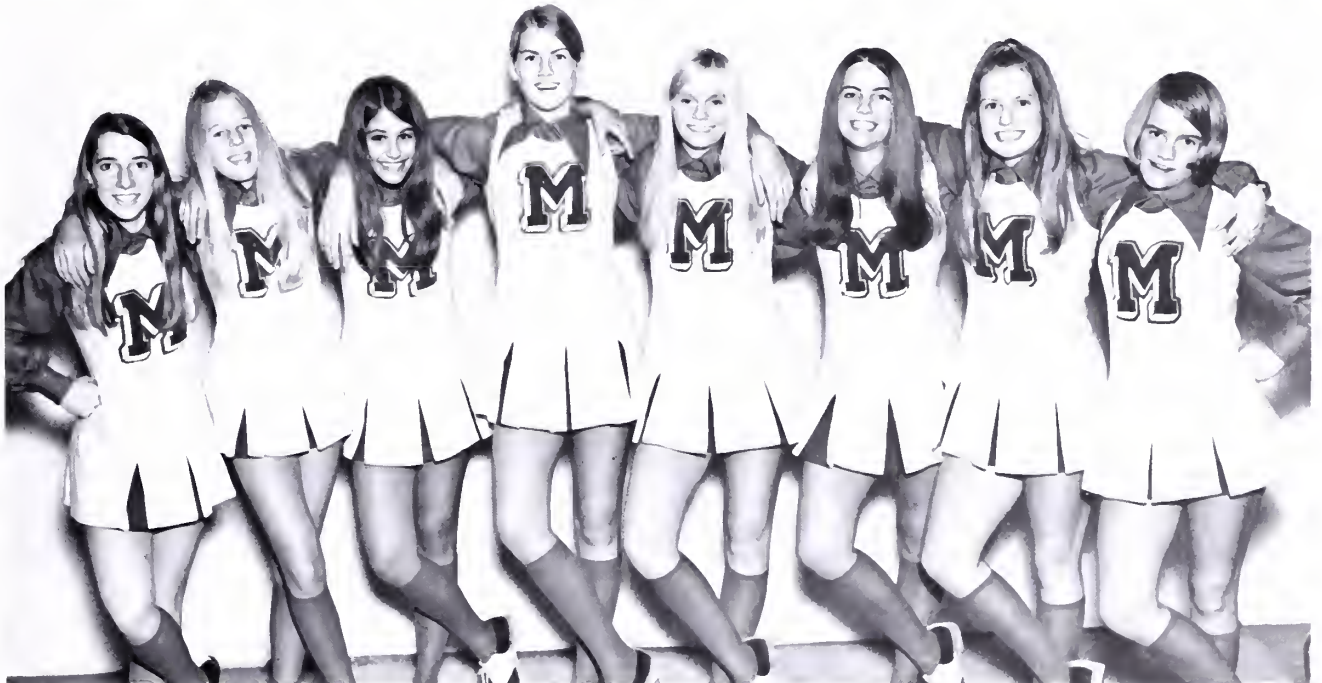

The Varsity Cheerleaders: Front row left to right: Diane Bass, Nancy Parsons, Carolyn Taylor- Captain, Susan Tate, Katherine Foreman. Back row: Sara Scott- Co-captain, Teri Harvey, Susan Thompson, Debbie Snider, Debbie Medley.

"Oh Lord, won't you give us a victory tonight."

"We've got the spirit, oh yea!"

J. V. Cheerleaders and Scarlettes

"Everyone needs healthy teeth!" became the slogan for the J.V. cheerleaders as they tried to sell toothbrushes to innocent bystanders. They encouraged pep at J.V. football and basketball games.

During Homecoming, our J.V. cheerleaders rallied spirit.

Grueling practices at camp contributed to the precision performances of the Scarlettes. One of the busiest groups at MSHS, they were given donations on a minibike, sold concessions at the J.V. football games and the State Wrestling Tournament and helped the ecological cause by selling trash cans. Also, they showed their smiling faces at the Regional Basketball Tournament where they sold programs.

Flashy red and white uniforms brightened Christmas spirit.

Practice makes perfect?

Marion is Host

Marion Senior High's Hurricane House was the scene of the 1971-1972 State Wrestling tournament and Region IV Basketball tournament. The wrestlers won the regionals and were favored to place highly in the State tournament. They placed thirteenth out of twenty-seven teams in the match. The basketball team won the regular season Southwest District Crown and advanced to the Regionals. In the semi-finals Marion defeated Blacksburg with a score of 58-55. In the finals Marion was upset by Radford by a score of 58-56 in a heartbreaker for everyone.

Girls' Track

"Anything you can do, we can do better!" was the challenge the Girls' Track Team threw to the boys. Bubbling over with energy, these enthusiastic girls willingly gave up sundaes as they struggled to get back in shape after their winter of rest, and proved to all that girls were not meant to only cook and sew!

"You can have it, I don't want it anymore!"

Hope this isn't quicksand!!

If you don't want it, just throw it to someone else.

"My, my this thing is heavy!"

Hurricane precipitation brought showers of joy, torrents of laughter, and trickles of disappointment. As the school year closed, shining goals came in sight. There were tremulous and overflowing emotions. Regret or relief, Seniors or Freshmen, each had a new day to face and, as individual challenges arose, individual Hurricane People met with them with typical stamina and courage. But it was not individuals working for a gap, for whatever they did, the Hurricane People united and worked together. Though some of the people were severed from the final product, there were fond crumbs of memory left in the hearts of the Hurricane People.
